Always in Advance.

We want a correspondent in every precinct in the counties of Wolfe, Morgan, Breathitt, Menifee, and Mingo, for the purpose of securing "Public Education." The S. T. A. is the organized representative of this greatest of works, one which can never become a "Lame Duck" so long as the more than 120,000 intelligent schoolmen and women who are actively interested in the S. T. A. are faithful to their high trust! The next meeting of the S. T. A. is to be in Lexington, Ky., July 24th, 1885. More than 50 counties have promised delegations. Teachers show strength! No opposition can withstand the united efforts of the 120,000 who have resolved not to rest until Kentucky stands fully abreast the most advanced in this enlightened age. Every man and woman whose name appears in the "Proceedings" of the next meeting of the S. T. A. is to be held in memory by Kentuckians for many generations. Schoolmen and women resolve to make the self-sacrifice needed to enroll your names in this noble army warring against ignorance! Be with us July 24th! See! The railroad companies have nobly responded to our call! The people of Lexington have tendered to our people reduced rates of travel. Every intelligent lover of Kentucky observes you do not love the children? Strengthen their love for you by responding to the call the time made "open your devotion to our cause." 5000 programmes—every one of them get equally for the poor. Send for "Proceedings" of last meeting, to understand the trend of affairs. Christian teachers, pray that we may understand our duty and dare to do it.

LOCAL NEWS.

W. O. Min is having his new brick house, valued at $10,000, by a suicide-like act of O. Vermillion killed.

Breen's Liniment removes knots and all enlargements on horses or other animals. No cure no pay. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

I will have a fine bay 2-year-old stallion colt at the stock sale on June 19th, which will be sold to the highest bidder.
JERRY POTTERT.

Breen's Liniment is certainly the best combination of remedies for rheumatism, corns, pains in the back and side, and every ailment. Sold by J. T. & F. Day.

Notice the advertisement this week of the Holiday farm for sale by I. W. Maple. It is the most valuable farm in the county and a capital investment for any wide awake business farmer.

Rev. J. T. Pierratt will preach at the old Grassy church, on Grassy, next Saturday at 2 o'clock; at Sol. Lee's school house, Saturday night, at 8 o'clock; and at Grassy church again at 11 a. m. Sunday.

Kelly R. Day, went on his way, on last Tuesday for a general holiday, to be spent with his Uncle John Day, up on the creek of Froon, the place which he has chosen, together with his cousin, to sing fish by the dozen.

The attention of the road overseers on the road between this place and Maytown is respectfully called to the fact that their respective districts, and an appreciative people hope soon to see the road in its best possible condition.

Hardin Smith, who is in jail under a fine for tripping, and L. S. Smith, who of late Erickson murdered by Floyd Williams, who is also in jail under indictment for complicity with Williams, were married in the county jail last Thursday.

Felix Cockrill, the negro freed, was arrested in Breathitt county last week, and was sent to jail without trial, by the examining court last Saturday. We mentioned the case in last week's Herald. This move is the best and the better part in the sweet bye-and-bye.

Prof. N. B. Hays, whose school has just held its commencement exercises, has been employed to conduct many of the teachers' institutes, and a better choice could not have been made by the superintendents who were so fortunate as to secure his services.

We mentioned last week that David Moore had made the coffin for Mrs. N. N. Day, but we should have stated that he assisted Green, who was of this place to make it. Mr. Ward was employed to do the work, and employed Mr. Moore to assist him. We make this correction in justice to Mr. Ward, as his many friends doubtless thought it strange that another should be credited with his work.

The wife of Joseph Davis, Nickell, of Caney, in Morgan county, died at the residence of her husband last Friday morning. She was a Christian lady, having been a member of the Christian church for a number of years. She was the mother of 21 children, 17 of whom survive her. Rev. J. T. Pierratt preached her funeral on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, and the burial was witnessed by a large assemblage of her friends and relatives.

Two of our citizens, Judge G. B. Swango and Hon. W. O. Min, who were present at this place last fall, stand responsible to this gentleman for a debt of $118.40, unpaid by the patrons of the school. The citizens should come forward promptly and help him to pay the amount. It is certainly not just nor right for the parties repaying the benefits of the school to shirk their part of the expense.

Henry Godsey cut his foot very badly with an ax about 10 days ago, and has been partially confined to his home since, though, for the sake of his horse, he did take part in the driving of the entertainment on Thursday night last, and "Peppercorn" delighted the audience with his comic antics. His dialect in that special role is first-class, and with a little school students, who for her hour at Beattyville, on Saturday last, of the high school, Miss Gouley made many warm friends by her lady-like deportment, who wish her well in the future walks of life.

The Highest Market Price Paid for all Kinds of Medicinal Roots, Herbs and Barks, Except Ginseng.

Rev. D. G. B. Denmore, presiding elder of the M. E. church south, has been holding a protracted meeting at Poplar Grove, beginning on the 9th and ending on the 17th inst., preaching two sermons per day. Rev. W. B. Ragan lent a helping hand. Their efforts were crowned with great success. Thirty-nine members were received into the church, eighteen of whom were baptized by effusion. It is said to be one of the best, if not the best meeting, ever held at this place. The people were well-behaved, for which they received the commendation of the elders.

James Cecil is very ill.

Wm. Yocum, ar, who has been confined to his room for some time, is now able to be out again.

Our citizens are well-pleased with THE HERALD. Quite a number of them are taking it, and several more would be inclined to take it.

Quite a number of our citizens are at present engaged in peeling poplar logs, which they intend to run down the Licking river next winter.

Our countable, Jesse M. Oldfield, deserves much praise for the arrest of Buck Crowder, who was tried some three years ago, in the Wolfe circuit court, and sentenced to eleven years in the state prison for the murder of Esther Oldfield, on this creek, and immediately after the trial he, Caywood, escaped from the Mt. Sterling jail, and has since that time been at large, until last Monday, when Jesse Oldfield caught him in Lincoln county, West Virginia, and lodged him in the Mt. Sterling jail.

Your correspondents, "Garkey," from Cedar Bluff, Va., and "Longfellow," of Breathitt, Ky., seem to be very anxious to know where your Grassy creek correspondent is. I'll just say to them that I am "On The Wing." Longfellow wishes to know if I lost a sack of molasses. I can tell him about that; it is the ladies say I have never lost any of my sweetness from the earliest period of my existence down to the present time. Longfellow will also inform us if the wheel-barrow seeds have come up yet, and not bother about our sack of molasses any further. OX TER W. W.

MAYTOWN.
Born—To the wife of Oscar Young, a girl.

Rev. W. O. Stamper and V. Pierratt are on the way to the State fair.

Hon. W. M. Lacy was in town last week on business connected with the erection of the M. E. church south at this place.

The building committee for the Methodist church had a meeting last week and adjourned to the 26th inst. at 8 o'clock. R. A. Childrens secretary, and E. B. May treasurer.

Your editorial in last week's issue with reference to Day's appointment as deputy for the state is timely. A better man for the state for that position could not be found.

Ben. F. Sexton charged Jasper Ingram and others with forcible entry and detention of his property, and was in honor R. E. May, mayor of the town last week, resulting in a verdict in favor of the defendant.

Last Sabbath, while Rev. John Thomas was preaching at this place, Robert Little's wife fainted. She was carried away by her father, Dr. F. H. Williams, who has been lying in a critical condition ever since. At this writing she is thought to be recovering.

J. M. Murphy, of Grassy creek, and deputy clerk of Morgan county, was in town last week. He says he is a standing candidate for matrimonial honors. He further says he has written and made a dedication of love to every girl in the county, and has received no answer.

Now he wants to know who will be the first to come forward and respond. Marshall Day and Jesse Oldfield have returned from West Virginia, having in custody Buck Caywood, who some years ago was Oldfield's father-in-law, and who resulted in his death; for which Caywood was sentenced to the penitentiary for eleven years. He took an appeal from the lower court, and while his case was being disposed of by the court of appeals, he broke the Mt. Sterling jail and fled to West Virginia, where he has been ever since. In the meantime the court of appeals confirmed the decision of the lower court. Marshall Day, who is always on the lookout for violators of the law, heard of his whereabouts and forthwith arrested the young blood, and left him for a time with "Uncle Cash" Stephens at his hotel, to keep him until he could be returned to the marshal's great credit for this arrest.
